

Akwaaba Akwaaba

Have you always longed to visit the Motherland? Well, now is your opportunity to do just that!

May 17, 2012 – May 29, 2012

Sponsored By: Florida African American Student Association, Incorporated

We welcome you to experience the excitement of one of Africa's most vibrant countries – Ghana, West Africa. This two-week tour allows you to explore Ghana's rich history, culture and traditions through lectures by experts, and excursions to such major points of interest as Kakum Canopy Walkway; Aburi Botanical Gardens; the W.E.B. Dubois Center for Pan African Studies; universities, galleries, museums, cultural centers and open air markets. You will observe the crafting of wood carving, drum making, kente weaving, and adinkra wax printing. Most of all, you will never forget your visits to the forts, castles, and dungeons that enslaved our Ancestors in Elmina and Cape Coast. Space is limited so RESERVE YOUR SPACE NOW!!
